Mrs. CORA BIGELOW, East Northfield, Mass., says !

"A year ago last cummer I was sich with inflammation of the bladder. I had been troubled in this way for three years. I suffered out-old agonies a great deal of the time and was obliged to lie in bed most of the time I doctored for the three and was obliged to lie in bed most of the time I doctored for the disease. At laugth an old friend of mine advised me to take Dr. Greenes. Nearware abood and near-or remesty, which I did. I had got so that I could not sieep at night, nor be still days, I suffered as. I get a bottle of the Nearware and took a does before retiring and I felt the good results from it, sleeping at awastly and accusing as I ever did. From that day I continued its use until I had used two bottles, and It entirely cured near I have given it to my child who was sick and nearware from technical and it cared her. I think the child was in a fair way to have St. Visus Dance. I have often recommended Dr. Greene's Nearware and should be gird to answer any further inquiries about it. I think that if I had not taken it I should have gone crary, and might, in time, have ceased my death. I cannot speak in too high praise of the Nervura and I wish this published for the good of others."
